Honored Presenter****Judy Thornton, MSW, ACSW, LICSW

Summer 2010 - Saturday, June 26, 2010 at Heart To Heart Counseling, 1503 West 7th Ave, Spokane WA

Heart To Heart Counseling is offering a six-hour content review workshop for candidates seeking to qualify for the new Certified Counselor or Advisor credential taking effect on July 1, 2010 in the state of Washington.

This course is designed for:

Persons who previously held a Registered Counselor or Advisor credential for at least 5 years and now need to review and prepare for the new state exam to earn the "Certified" credential

Candidates who otherwise qualify for the Certified Counselor or Advisor credential but wish to take a review course in preparation for taking the new state exam.

This course consists of six hours of study in the following content areas: risk assessment; ethics; appropriate screening using the global assessment of functioning scale; client referral; Washington State law.

The class includes lecture and discussion, role-play, references, handouts and a practice exam at the end of the day. We will work through lunch; please bring a brown bag lunch to continue class discussion through the mid-day break.

Instructor, Judy Thornton, MSW has been the Clinical Director of Heart To Heart Counseling since 2008, a licensed mental health professional and approved supervisor in Washington since 1999.

Study consists of one Saturday class on June 26, 2010, 12:00p to 6:00p (Lunch will be served-please contact Penny at 747-7147 for special dietary needs)
